課程簡述 (course description)	'Language Lab. Workshop (II)', namely, 'English Listening and Speaking (II)' is a two-semester course available to the second-year English-major undergraduates in order to familiarise them with different strategies of communicating with people. Given that listening and speaking are complementary keys to communication, this class will encourage the students to listen, discuss, and then speak out on various topics with reference to academic and social contexts.

學習評量方式
(evaluation)

- A. Attendance and Class Participation 10%
- B. Assignments and Quizzes 30%
- C. Midterm Exam 30%
- D. Final Exam 30%

During the first half of the session, you will be required to take notes which will allow you to reconstruct the argument of the audio / video material presented. On two randomly selected occasions, I will ask you to hand these notes in for grading. Participation counts for 20% of the grade, lecture notes for 20% each; final and midterm exams count for 20% each.

Students may miss up to two classes without excuse; for a third absence, the grade will be lowered 10%. Students who miss four or more classes without excuse will be failed. Arriving more than 15min late to class will be counted as an absence.
