課程簡述 (course description)	This course on Films and Literature welcome all English majors and some non-English majors who are interested in joining the critical discussion of our contemporary social problems from some selected films. We will read some critical essays related to the theme of the films we see in class as well as some selected reading from the novels. It aims to train the mind to state the critical ideas in a more objective and constructive way and awaken students to view the social phenomenon with a critical distance from multi-perspectives.
