DFLL Graduation Requirements for Students Enrolled after 2025

Credits for the extra-curricular course English and American Literature will be considered as elective courses for department majors
(3) Students are required to study Japanese, German, Spanish, and French (including courses jointly offered by this department and the whole school) before graduation, with 6 credits in any language. Over-study credits are included in the calculation of credits from external departments. This department recognizes a maximum of 18 credits from external departments.

(4) If students in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature take English courses common to the entire school, they will not be counted toward graduation credits.

VIII. Minor Degree: If a student intends to study for a minor degree, he/she will need to take 30 (or more) credits in addition to the department's minimum credits required for graduation. For more details, please see the bulletin of Curriculum Division website.

IX. Double Major: The graduation requirements for students in pursuit of a double major (department or degree program) shall be based on the relevant regulations applicable at the time (year) when the application was approved. Double major students not only have to fulfill all graduation credit requirements of their original major (department or degree program), they must also complete all core courses for the second major (department or degree program) in order to be granted a double major degree.

Undergraduate students who did not complete or are short of 40 credits for the second major must make up for those credits by taking courses designated by the second-major department or degree program.

X. Cross-Disciplinary Expertise Development Program: For students whose compulsory courses and credits are the same as the ones offered by the departments (degree programs), double major, minor, or other cross-disciplinary expertise programs providing cross-disciplinary expertise courses, they shall take other elective courses that are related to their expertise and designated by the departments (degree programs) or colleges providing cross-disciplinary expertise module courses.

XI. Students who graduate from the study period of the senior high school less than 6 years will be required to take at least 12 extra credits in their graduation requirements.
